49.103 Methods of settlement.

Settlement of terminated cost-reimbursement contracts and fixed-price contracts terminated for convenience may be effected by (a) negotiated agreement, (b) determination by the TCO, (c) costing-out under vouchers using $\underline{SF\ 1034}$, Public Voucher for Purchases and Services Other Than Personal, for cost-reimbursement contracts (as prescribed in $\underline{subpart\ 49.3}$), or (d) a combination of these methods. When possible, the TCO \underline{should} negotiate a fair and prompt settlement with the contractor. The TCO \underline{shall} settle a $\underline{settlement\ proposal}$ by determination only when it cannot be settled by agreement.

Parent topic: Subpart 49.1 - General Principles