49.403 Termination of cost-reimbursement contracts for default.

- (a) The right to terminate a cost-reimbursement contract for default is provided for in the Termination for Default or for Convenience of the Government clause at 52.249-6. A 10-day notice to the contractor before termination for default is required in every case by the clause.
- (b) Settlement of a cost-reimbursement contract terminated for default is subject to the principles in $\underline{\text{subparts } 49.1}$ and $\underline{49.3}$ the same as when a contract is terminated for convenience, except that-
- (1) The costs of preparing the contractor's settlement proposal are not allowable (see paragraph (h)(3) of the clause); and
- (2) The contractor is reimbursed the allowable costs, and an appropriate reduction is made in the total fee, if any, (see paragraph (h)(4) of the clause).
- (c) The contracting officer shall use the procedures in 49.402 to the extent appropriate in considering the termination for default of a cost-reimbursement contract. However, a cost-reimbursement contract does not contain any provision for recovery of excess repurchase costs after termination for default (but see paragraph (g) of the clause at 52.246-3 with respect to failure of the contractor to replace or correct defective supplies).
